Property Description

This beautiful 3-bedroom, 3.5-bathroom home features a refined and contemporary design, with an open-concept kitchen and high-quality appliances. On the first floor, you'll find a cozy living room and a bedroom that can also serve as an office, offering flexibility whether you work from home or host guests. The second floor includes two bedrooms: one perfect for visitors, and the master suite, a true sanctuary, featuring a spacious bathroom with double sinks, a walk-in closet, and a stunning view that fills the room with natural light each morning. The property also offers a charming terrace, ideal for enjoying unforgettable sunsets, surrounded by nature and the peaceful presence of local birds, creating a truly magical setting. There are no houses in front of the property, only the community's volleyball court, which is not heavily used but remains a pleasant and convenient amenity. The house includes a spacious garage that fits a large vehicle and provides additional storage space.
