Property Description

PEBBLES BEACH - A 444.5-Hectare (1098 Acres) Private Sanctuary on Costa Rica's Golfo Dulce Discover Pebbles Beach, an extraordinary 444.5-hectare (1,098-acre) coastal sanctuary unfolding along one full kilometer of pristine, private beachfront on Costa Rica's legendary Golfo Dulce, one of only four tropical fjords in the world. Accessible exclusively by water and located just 12 minutes from Golfito Marina, this is a once-in-a-generation opportunity to acquire a truly secluded tropical wilderness with world-class hospitality and conservation potential. Property Overview Pebbles Beach is a rare, large-scale coastal holding in the heart of Costa Rica's most biodiverse region, the Osa Peninsula corridor. With nearly 445 hectares of mature tropical forest, freshwater springs, and untouched shoreline, the property offers the privacy of a true reserve combined with the strategic location of a premier eco-hospitality destination.
